Instruction on the Right of Revocation

1. Right of Revocation

You may declare the revocation of your contractual statement without the need to provide any reason. The revocation period is 14 days from the date you or a third person, named by you, has received the final item of the order.

To exercise your right of revocation, you have to inform us:

Or via fax to: +34 922 938 417

Or via email to: info@timah.net

2. Consequences of revocation

In case of a valid revocation of this contract, we have to refund any payments received from you, including cost of delivery (except all additional costs occurring from the fact that you chose a delivery option other than the most advantageous standard delivery we offered), immediately and no later than 14 days after the day we received the information about your revocation of the contract. For payment of the refund we will use the same payment method you used in the original transaction, unless another method was specifically agreed upon with you. In no case will fees occur due to the payment of the refund. Should you have requested that the services begin within the revocation period, you will have to pay an adequate amount corresponding to the portion of services performed until the time you inform us about exercising the right of revocation regarding this contract compared to the extent of the services required by the contract.
